AN ORDINANCE for the Naturalization of certain Persons in the Islands of New Zealand.

NATURALIZATION.

[3rd January, 1853.]

WHEREAS by an Ordinance enacted by the Governor-in-Chief of the New Zealand Islands, with the advice and consent of the General Legislative Council thereof, (Session XI., No. 9,) and intituled

Naturalization.

“An Ordinance for the Naturalization of certain Persons in the Islands of New Zealand,” it was provided that all persons who should be declared to come within the operation of the said Ordinance by any Proclamation to be issued in that behalf by His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief, should be deemed and taken, until the then next Session of the General Legislature within the Islands of New Zealand, to be natural born subjects of Her Majesty:

Persons named in Schedule to be naturalized.

1. Be it enacted that all and singular the persons who are particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and who have from time to time been declared, by virtue of the above-mentioned Ordinance, to come within the operation of the same, shall be to all intents and purposes whatsoever, within the Islands of New Zealand, deemed and taken to be and to have been, from the dates set opposite to their names respectively, and in the absence of such dates from the date of the passing of this Ordinance, natural born subjects of Her Majesty, as if they had been respectively born within the realm of England.

Persons declared to come within operation of this Ordinance by Proclamation, to be deemed, until next Session of General Legislature, natural born subjects.

2. And whereas there are certain other persons resident in New Zealand whom it is expedient to relieve from the disabilities to which aliens are by law subject, but whose names and description have not been accurately ascertained: Be it enacted that all and singular the persons who shall be declared to come within the operation of this Ordinance by any Proclamation to be issued in that behalf by His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief, shall be deemed and taken, until the next Session of the General Legislature, within the Islands of New Zealand, to be natural born subjects of Her Majesty, as fully to all intents and purposes as if their names had respectively been inserted in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

Commencement.

3. This Ordinance shall come into operation from and after the passing hereof.
