AN ACT to amend "The Wellington Special Settlements Act, 1871." Title.
[22nd August, 1874.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Wellington Special Settlements Act Amendment Act, 1874;" and it shall be read with and as part of "The Wellington Special Settlements Act, 1871," (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"). Short Title.

2. Whenever under the powers contained in the First Part of the said Act, the Superintendent for the time being of the Province of Wellington, with the advice of his Executive Council, shall have set apart one or more blocks of land for the purposes of the First Part of the said Act, he may, with the advice of his Executive Council, from time to time, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette of the province, withdraw any such block or blocks of land from the operation of the said First Part of the said Act, and any such Proclamation may include the whole of any such block or blocks, or only a part or parts thereof, as the case may be. Superintendent may withdraw land from operation of First Part of Act.

3. If the Superintendent shall at any time exercise the power of withdrawal conferred upon him by this Act in the manner herein provided, it shall be lawful for him, in the manner provided by the said Act, to re-proclaim any such block or blocks of lands, or any parts thereof, so withdrawn as aforesaid, either alone or with any other lands to be dealt with under and subject to the said First Part of the said Act: Provided always that any land included in any such proclamation of withdrawal, and not re-proclaimed as aforesaid, shall be sold by the Commissioner of Crown Lands in blocks not exceeding two hundred acres, by public auction, for cash, at such time and place as he shall appoint, but not at a price less than twenty shillings per acre. Land so withdrawn may be re-proclaimed under First Part of Act.
