Title.

AN ACT to make Provision for the Management of certain Rivers in the Province of Wellington.

[18th October, 1875.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the management of certain rivers in the Province of Wellington, and to provide for the making repairing and maintaining of protective works to lessen the damage occasioned by the overflow of such rivers:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be “The Wellington Rivers Act, 1875.”

CONSTITUTION OF DISTRICTS AND BOARDS.

Superintendent may decide upon district.

2. The Superintendent may from time to time decide that any part or parts of the province shall be constituted a district for the purposes of this Act, and shall describe the limits of such district and designate the name by which such district shall be known, and mention the number of Conservators, being not less than three nor more than five, of which the Board of the district shall be constituted, and shall take the necessary steps for the constitution of a Board of Conservators for the district as hereinafter provided.

Constitution of Board.

3. The Conservators for each district shall be elected and vacancies among them filled up by election as hereinafter mentioned.

Election by Road Boards.

4. Every ratepayer of any district to be constituted under this Act, within whose jurisdiction the district or any part thereof may be situate, shall be entitled to vote at the election of a member or members of the Board. If at any election any two or more candidates have the same number of votes the member shall be chosen from such candidates by lot.

Superintendent to make regulations.

5. The Superintendent shall, by Proclamation in the Provincial Gazette, make regulations for conducting the elections of members of a Board, and such regulations may from time to time in like manner amend and alter, and may appoint fit persons to conduct such elections and shall fix the time and place of every such election, and, forthwith on any vacancy occurring among the elected members of the Board, the Superintendent shall cause a fresh election to be held to fill up such vacancy.

Superintendent to pay expenses.

6. The Superintendent shall pay all expenses incident to the constitution of the Board, or that he may be put to in carrying out this Act, out of the Provincial Treasury, and may recover the same from the Board when constituted as a debt due.

Qualification of members.

7. Any person of full age, being a ratepayer within any district proclaimed as hereinbefore provided, shall be capable of being nominated or elected a member of the Board of such district.

Superintendent may nominate in certain cases.

8. If from any cause whatever the full number of members shall not be elected for any Board on its first constitution, or if the vacancies among members shall not be duly filled up by election, the Superintendent shall forthwith nominate a member or members to make up such number or fill up such vacancies; and the member or members so nominated shall hold office in all respects as if he or they had been elected members.

Board to be declared constituted in New Zealand Gazette.

9. So soon as the full number of members of a Board has been filled up as is hereinbefore provided, the Superintendent shall, by

Wellington Rivers.

Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette and the Gazette of the province, declare the Board to be duly constituted, and from and after the date of such last-mentioned Proclamation, the Board shall be a corporation under the name of "The Board of Conservators for the District" (the blank being filled up by the name by which the district is to be designated), having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to make alter and renew the same, to hold property real and personal for the purposes of this Act, and to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any Court of law or equity.

10. Every member of a Board shall hold office for a period of four years from the date of his election or appointment: Provided nevertheless that if any member elected or otherwise shall become bankrupt or insolvent, or enter into any contract with the Board, or be employed by the Board, or share the profit of any contract entered into with the Board, save as the member of any public registered company, or be convicted of felony or any infamous offence, or absent himself from six successive meetings of the Board without leave from the Board first obtained, or shall by writing under his hand, addressed to the Chairman of the Board, resign his seat thereat, his office shall be ipso facto vacant.

Duration and terms of tenure of office.

11. The Board shall have an office wherein to hold their meetings and transact business under this Act, in some convenient place within the district.

Board shall have office.

12. The Board shall, at their first meeting, and on any vacancy in the chairmanship, elect from among themselves a chairman, who shall, if present, preside at all meetings, but in the event of his absence the members of the Board present shall elect from among themselves a chairman for that meeting. The Chairman of the Board shall hold office for the term of four years from the date of his election, unless he shall previously resign his office, or his seat at the Board shall be vacated.

Board shall elect Chairman.

13. The Board shall cause proper minutes to be taken and kept of the proceedings of each meeting.

Minutes to be kept.

14. No act of the Board shall be invalid on account of any vacancy having occurred, or on account of any person acting as a member who is not legally qualified, or who has not been legally nominated or elected a member. If from any cause whatever all the seats on the Board shall become vacant, the Board shall not be thereby dissolved, but new members thereof shall be forthwith nominated and elected as hereinbefore mentioned, and the Board so reconstituted shall be considered in all respects to represent and be the successors of the original Board.

Validity of proceedings not to be affected by irregularities.

RATES.

15. All property within the district which under any law now or hereafter to be in force is or may be liable to be rated for local purposes by any Road Board or City or Borough Council shall be liable to be rated for the purposes of this Act: Provided that the total amount of rates levied under this Act in any one year, other than special rates as hereinafter provided, shall not exceed the value of one shilling in the pound on the annual rateable value of such property, calculated according to the provisions of any such law, which rates shall be the property of the Board.

What property may be rated.

16. It shall be lawful for the Board from time to time to resolve that any such rate shall be made and levied, and to fix the amount in the pound of such rate, and the Board after any such resolution shall have been passed shall cause a copy of the same to be posted up in the office of the said Board, and in one other conspicuous place within the said district.

Board shall have power to fix rates.

Wellington Rivers.

Special rates may be levied.

17. From time to time whenever it shall appear to the Board, upon the report of some competent person appointed or approved of by the Superintendent, that any work or improvement which the Board is hereby authorized to do or execute is for the special benefit of any particular portion of the district within their respective jurisdiction, the Board may, for the purpose of defraying all or any part of the expenses incurred in so doing or executing such work, by resolution, declare that particular lands, to be defined by some competent person appointed or approved of by the Superintendent as lands properly liable to contribute to such improvements, and which lands shall be described in such resolution, shall be so liable to contribute, and may therefore resolve that a special rate shall be made and levied equally upon all rateable property situated within such portion; and the same proceedings shall be had for making levying collecting and recovering such rates as are hereinbefore enacted and set forth for making levying collecting and recovering other rates under the authority of this Act, but as if the words "portion of the district" were substituted for the word "district": Provided that the total amount of special rate to be levied in any one year shall not exceed the amount of one shilling in the pound on the annual rateable value of the property rated, and the Board is hereby authorized to apply the moneys to be collected and received from each such portion respectively, by virtue of any such special rate or rates, towards the expense of such work or improvement as aforesaid, or towards recouping themselves the expense of any such work or improvement which may have been constructed and made before such special rate was resolved on.

Provincial Government property to be rated.

18. All property belonging to or in the occupation of the Superintendent, on behalf of the province, which if it did not so belong or were not so occupied would be liable to be rated, shall be liable to be rated for the purposes of this Act. Whenever the Board pass a resolution as above mentioned, that a rate either general or special shall be levied, they shall forward copies of the same to the Superintendent and to the Provincial Auditor, or to some other person appointed by the Governor for the purpose, and the Provincial Auditor, or such other person, shall award what amount would be paid for any such property in respect of any such rate, if such property were liable to be rated otherwise than under this present proviso, and had been rated accordingly, and the Superintendent shall forthwith pay the amount awarded to the Board out of the Provincial Treasury. The Superintendent and the Board shall furnish such information as the Provincial Auditor, or such other person as aforesaid, may require for enabling him to decide on the amount.

POWER AND DUTIES OF BOARD.

Streams sewers and watercourses to be in jurisdiction of Board.

19. As far as shall be necessary for the purpose of providing for the making repairing and maintaining of protective works to prevent or lessen any damage which may be occasioned by the overflow or by the breaking of the banks of any river within any proclaimed district of the said province, whether such river shall or shall not in any part thereof be navigable or be altered by the flow or ebb of the tide, such rivers and all streams sewers and watercourses which now do or hereafter shall or may directly or indirectly communicate with any such river, and all walls banks culverts bridges dams flood-gates and other works erected or to be erected in upon over or adjoining to any such rivers, and all other protective works, shall be from and after the time of the incorporation of the Board to all intents constructions and purposes within and subject to the jurisdiction of the Board of the amount of the compensation so claimed, the same shall be so settled accordingly: Provided such notice be given before the expiration of seven days after such compensation shall have been claimed or offered, as the case may be.

A Justice may summon either party to appear.

29. It shall be lawful for any Justice, upon the application of either party with respect to any question of disputed compensation by this Act authorized to be settled by two Justices, to summon the other party to appear before two Justices at a time and place to be named in the summons, and upon the appearance of such parties, or in the absence of any of them, upon proof of due service of the summons, it shall be lawful for such Justices to hear and determine such question, and for that purpose to examine such parties or any of them and their witnesses upon oath, and the cost of every such inquiry shall be in the discretion of such Justices, and they shall settle the amount thereof.

Appointment of Arbitrator when questions are to be determined by arbitration.

30. When any question of disputed compensation by this Act authorized to be settled by arbitration shall have arisen, then, unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single Arbitrator, each party on the request of the other party shall nominate and appoint an Arbitrator to whom such disputes shall be referred, and every appointment of an Arbitrator shall be made on the part of the Board under the common seal, and on the part of any other party under the hand of such party, or if such party be a corporation aggregate under the common seal of such corporation, and such appointment shall be delivered to the Arbitrator and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made; and after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation, and if for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute shall have arisen, and after a request in writing, in which shall be stated the matter so required to be referred to arbitration, shall have been served by the one party on the other party to appoint an Arbitrator, such last-mentioned party fail to appoint such Arbitrator, then upon such failure the party making the request, and having himself appointed an Arbitrator, may appoint such Arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties, and such Arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters which shall be in dispute, and in such case the award or determination of any such single Arbitrator shall be final.

Vacancy of Arbitrator to be supplied.

31. If before the matter so referred shall be determined, any Arbitrator appointed by either party die or become incapable, the party by whom such Arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in manner aforesaid some other person to act in his place, and if for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose he fail to do so, the remaining or other Arbitrator may proceed ex parte, and every Arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former Arbitrator at the time of such his death or disability as aforesaid.

Appointment of Umpire.

32. Where more than one Arbitrator shall have been appointed such Arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to, then nominate and appoint by writing under their hands an Umpire to decide on any such matters on which they shall differ or which shall be referred to him under the provisions of this Act, and if such Umpire shall die or become incapable to act, they shall forthwith after such death or incapacity appoint another Umpire in his place, and the decision of every such Umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

Wellington Rivers.

33. If in either of the cases aforesaid the said Arbitrators shall refuse or shall for seven days after request of either party to such arbitration neglect to appoint an Umpire, any two Justices shall on the application of either party to such arbitration appoint an Umpire, and the decision of such Umpire on the matters on which the Arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this Act, shall be final.

Two Justices to appoint Umpire in certain cases.

34. If when a single Arbitrator shall have been appointed such Arbitrator shall die or become incapable to act before he shall have made his award, the matters referred to him shall be determined by arbitration under the provisions of this Act, in the same manner as if such Arbitrator had not been appointed.

In case of death of single Arbitrator the matter to begin de novo.

35. If where more than one Arbitrator shall have been appointed either of the Arbitrators refuse or for seven days neglect to act, the other Arbitrator may proceed ex parte, and the decision of such other Arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been the single Arbitrator appointed by both parties.

In case of refusal, one Arbitrator to proceed ex parte.

36. If where more than one Arbitrator shall have been appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as aforesaid, such Arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-one days after the day on which the last of such Arbitrators shall have been appointed, or within such extended time, if any, as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both such Arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the Umpire, to be appointed as aforesaid.

If Arbitrators fail to make award within twenty-one days, matter to go to Umpire.

37. The said Arbitrators, or their Umpire, may call for the production of any documents in the possession or power of either party which they or he may think necessary for determining the question in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

Power of Arbitrators to call for books &c.

38. Before any Arbitrator or Umpire shall enter into the consideration of any matters referred to him, he shall, in the presence of a Justice, make and subscribe the following declaration, that is to say,—

Arbitrator or Umpire to make declaration.

“I, A.B., do solemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my skill and ability, hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of ‘The Wellington Rivers Act, 1875.’

“A.B.

“Made and subscribed in the presence of . . .”

And such declaration shall be annexed to the award when made, and if any Arbitrator or Umpire having made such declaration shall wilfully act contrary thereto, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

39. All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto to be settled by the Arbitrators shall be borne by the Board, unless the Arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the Board, in which case each party shall bear his own costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the Arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions.

Cost of arbitration.

40. The Arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the Board, and the said Board shall retain the same, and shall forthwith on demand, at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party to the arbitration, and shall at all times on demand produce the said award, and allow the same to be inspected or examined by such party or any person appointed by him for that purpose.

Award to be delivered to Board.

41. The submission to any such arbitration may be made a rule of the Supreme Court of New Zealand on the application of either of the parties.
