1905, No. 42.—Local.

Title. AN ACT to declare that certain Private Streets and Private Ways in the City of Wellington are Streets. [27th October, 1905.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Wellington City Streets Act, 1905."

Certain private streets and private ways are declared to be streets.

2. The private streets and private ways mentioned in the Schedule hereto are hereby declared to be and the same are streets as defined in section two hundred and nine of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900."

New buildings on private ways.

3. Notwithstanding anything in "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900," or its amendments, no new building shall, after the passing of this Act, be erected, used, or occupied as a dwellinghouse or as ancillary to a dwellinghouse within the City of Wellington on land fronting any private way, unless every part of such building is distant at least twenty feet from the centre line (as defined by the Corporation) of such private way, or at least twenty feet from the end of any private way having only one outlet, or unless such land abuts on a street or a private street or another private way not less than forty feet wide:

Provided that this section shall not apply to any building for which a permit has, before the passing of this Act, been granted by the Council.

Section 231 of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900," to extend to all private ways in the city.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in section two hundred and thirty-two of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900," the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-one of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900," shall, so far as relates to the City of Wellington, extend to all private ways in the said city actually in use, laid out, or constructed, whether consented to by the Council of the said city or not.

5. If any person erects any building contrary to the provisions of this Act, or to any condition imposed under the provisions of this Act, such person is liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds for every day during which such breach continues.

Penalty for unlawful erection of buildings.
