1926, No. 2.—Private.

AN ACT to enable the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Wellington to sell and dispose of certain Lands in the Archdiocese of Wellington, and to apply the Net Proceeds thereof in or towards the Purchase of other Lands in the Archdiocese, and in or towards the Erection of Church and School Buildings, and to authorize the Raising of Money on the Security of the Lands so acquired, or any of them. Title.

[9th September, 1926.]

WHEREAS in the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Wellington certain lands described in the Schedule hereto, granted and acquired for the purposes of erecting church and school buildings thereon, are now no longer suitable for such purposes: And whereas the said lands are either vested in the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Wellington for the time being as a corporation sole in virtue of the provisions of the Roman Catholic Lands Act, 1876, and the Roman Catholic Lands Extension Act, 1890, or have been granted to or acquired by trustees for the purposes or benefit of the Roman Catholic Church in New Zealand: And whereas the said Acts confer on the said Archbishop power to lease land for any term not exceeding forty-two years, but no provision is made thereby enabling the said Archbishop to sell any lands vested in him: And whereas it is desirable that the said Archbishop should be empowered to sell the said lands, and to apply the proceeds thereof in the purchase of other lands in the said Archdiocese and in the erection of church and school buildings: And whereas the powers requisite to enable the said Archbishop to sell such lands or any of them and to apply the proceeds as aforesaid are attainable only by legislation: Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Roman Catholic Archbishop Empowering Act, 1926.

Interpretation.

2. In the interpretation of this Act the expression "the Archbishop" shall mean and include the Roman Catholic Archbishop or Bishop of the Archdiocese of Wellington for the time being.

Lands to vest in Archbishop subject to encumbrances, &c.

3. The lands described in the Schedule hereto shall vest in and be held by the Archbishop under the provisions of the Roman Catholic Lands Act, 1876, and the Roman Catholic Lands Extension Act, 1890, subject to any encumbrances thereon, and any contracts heretofore made in respect thereof, and to any trusts affecting the same.

Archbishop may sell certain lands, and may invest the proceeds pending the application thereof.

4. Subject to the provisions of section six hereof, it shall be lawful for the Archbishop to sell and dispose of the said lands or any of them, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, upon such terms and conditions in all respects as he may deem fit, and to convey, transfer, and assure the same to any purchaser or purchasers, freed and discharged of and from any trusts; and to apply the proceeds thereof in the purchase of other lands and in the erection of church and school buildings in the said Archdiocese, and, pending the application of such proceeds as aforesaid, to invest any moneys arising from the sale or disposition of such lands, or any part thereof, in any manner in which trustees may lawfully invest trust-moneys.

Archbishop may borrow.

5. For the purpose of erecting such buildings as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Archbishop from time to time to borrow and raise money by way of mortgage on the security of lands acquired by the proceeds of sale as aforesaid, or any of them, or on the security of any part or parts thereof, and of the buildings erected or to be erected thereon; and every such mortgage shall contain such covenants, conditions, and powers as may by law be implied, or (not being inconsistent with this Act) as may be agreed upon by and between the Archbishop and the mortgagee or mortgagees, as the case may be.

Conditions of trust to apply to proceeds of sale of trust lands and to lands purchased out of such proceeds.

6. Where it is a condition in any deed or instrument creating a trust in respect of any of the said lands the same shall enure only within the limits of any provincial district, county, or borough named therein, then and in every such case the moneys realized by the sale or disposition of such lands or any of them, or the lands acquired by the proceeds of such sale or disposition, shall be invested or held and shall continue subject to the like condition or trust in so far as the same shall not conflict with the provisions of the Roman Catholic Lands Act, 1876.
