(3) The value of any benefits which for the purposes of this Part of this Act are by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section included in the term "salary" shall be determined in the manner prescribed by section one hundred and fifteen of the Public Service Superannuation Act, 1927, so far as that section is applicable, and in all other cases shall be determined in manner prescribed by the Minister of Finance.

(4) Where the salary of any person to whom this Part of this Act applies comprises more than one item, the increase of salary provided for by this Part of this Act may, as the Minister of Finance directs, be added to each item separately or may be added to any one or more of the items to the exclusion of any item or items.

Application of this Part.

4. The rate of the salary payable to any person to whom this Part of this Act applies is hereby increased as from the thirty-first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, or any later date on which such rate of salary commenced, by an amount equal to seven and one-half per centum thereof.
