No. VIII.

AN ORDINANCE for taking a Census of the Colony of New Zealand. [15th July, 1851.]

CENSUS.

WHEREAS it is expedient that authentic statistical information of the Colony of New Zealand be periodically obtained :

Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1. That a Census of the number and condition of the population of the Islands of New Zealand shall be taken in the first fourth and seventh years of every decade of years, on the days and in the manner hereinafter declared.

Census to be taken at certain periods in each decade of years.

2. That the first decade shall be deemed to commence with the year of the passing hereof.

Commencement of first decade.

3. That the Governor-in-Chief shall appoint persons to collect the information required by this Ordinance, and may cause an allowance to be made to any such person at a rate not exceeding ten shillings per day.

Persons to be appointed to leave and collect Schedules &c. How to be remunerated.

4. That in each of the years hereinbefore particularized the Senior Resident Magistrate in every settlement in the said Islands, or, where there is no Resident Magistrate, some fit person to be appointed by His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief, shall, on or before the first day of March, cause notices to be affixed on the several Churches, Chapels, Court Houses, and Police Stations, and in such other conspicuous places as he shall deem proper, within such district as shall be to him assigned for that purpose by His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief, requiring every householder to be prepared, on the thirty-first day of March, or as soon thereafter as he may be called upon so to do by a Collector appointed as aforesaid, to give all such information as is required by the Schedule hereunto annexed.

Resident Magistrate to warn all householders to be ready with information by a certain day.

5. That the said Collectors shall, on or before the twenty-fifth day of March in each of the years hereinbefore particularized, leave at every house within the districts assigned to them respectively a Schedule, being a blank copy of the Schedule to this Ordinance annexed; and every householder able to write shall, on the thirty-first day of March, furnish in writing the information required by the said Schedule, by filling up the same and subscribing his name at the foot thereof, and shall deliver the same when called for to one of the said Collectors.

Collectors to leave Schedules at every house.

Householder to fill up same.

6. That each Collector shall, as soon after the thirty-first day of March as practicable, call at every house in his district to collect the Schedules, and is hereby authorized to put such questions as may be indispensable to the complete filling up thereof, to any householder who, from inability to write, shall not have duly filled up the same, and the Collector shall thereupon fill it up himself with the information so supplied.

Collectors to call for Schedules and complete them in certain cases.

7. That every householder who shall wilfully refuse or without lawful excuse neglect to fill up the said Schedule to the best of his knowledge and belief, or to sign and deliver the same, or shall make

NATURALIZATION.

AN ORDINANCE for the Naturalization of certain Persons in the Islands of New Zealand.

[17th July, 1851.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the persons particularly described in the Schedule to this Ordinance annexed have settled in this Colony: And it is expedient that there should be removed from them (within this Colony) the disabilities to which aliens are by law subjected:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Governor-in-Chief of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Persons named in the Schedule to be naturalized.

1. All and singular the persons who are particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed shall be to all intents and purposes whatsoever, within the Islands of New Zealand, deemed and taken to be and to have been from the dates set opposite to their names respectively, and in the absence of such dates from the date of the passing of this Ordinance, natural born subjects of Her Majesty, as if they had been respectively born within the realm of England.

Persons declared to come within operation of this Ordinance by Proclamation, to be deemed, until next Session of General Legislature, natural born subjects.

2. And whereas there are certain other persons resident in New Zealand whom it is expedient to relieve from the disabilities to which aliens are by law subject, but whose names and description have not been accurately ascertained: Be it enacted that all and singular the persons who shall be declared to come within the operation of this Ordinance by any Proclamation to be issued in that behalf by His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief, shall be deemed and taken, until the next Session of the General Legislature, within the Islands of New Zealand, to be natural born subjects of Her Majesty, as fully to all intents and purposes as if their names had respectively been inserted in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

Commencement of Ordinance.

3. This Ordinance shall come into operation from and after the passing hereof.
