AN ACT to declare the Validity of the Elections of certain Members of the House of Representatives.

[17th November, 1879.]

WHEREAS doubts have been raised as to whether the several persons mentioned in the Schedule to this Act were duly elected at the last general election for the electoral districts set opposite their names respectively, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed:

BE IT THEREFORE DECLARED AND ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Elections Validation Act, 1879.”

2. The several persons whose names are set forth in the Schedule to this Act were duly elected for the several electoral districts set opposite their names respectively, and they have not been and are not disqualified from sitting and voting in the House of Representatives accordingly.

3. Every of the said persons shall be and is hereby indemnified, freed, and discharged from and against all penalties, forfeitures, incapacities, and disabilities whatsoever, if any, incurred or to be incurred by him by reason or in consequence of his having heretofore sat or voted, or his hereafter sitting and voting, as a member of the House of Representatives.
