1896, No. 9.

Title.

AN ACT to amend "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1886."

[9th September, 1896.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Municipal Corporations Act 1886 Amendment Act, 1896."

Defaulters may vote on paying rates.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1886," any person whose name appears on the defaulters' list shall be entitled to vote at any election for Mayor or Councillor, or at any poll for a special loan as provided by the said Act, if he shall have previously paid all rates, costs, and penalties due by him.

Receipt of collector sufficient authority
to Returning Officer.

3. The production of the rate-collector's receipt, showing all rates, costs, and penalties as having been paid, shall be sufficient authority to the Returning Officer at any such election or polling for allowing the person whose rates have been paid to exercise his right to vote, in the same manner as if his name appears on the Burgess roll.
