Title. AN ACT to transfer certain Land in the City of Auckland to the Auckland University College Council as a Site for a College, and to confer certain Powers upon the said Council.

[24th October, 1919.]

Preamble. WHEREAS the land described in the Schedule hereto is part of the land set apart for the purposes of a Government House at Auckland, but is no longer required for those purposes: And whereas it is desired to transfer the said land to the governing body of the Auckland University College as a site for a college, on the terms and conditions hereinafter appearing:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Auckland University College Site Act, 1919.

Land vested in Auckland University College Council. 2. The land described in the Schedule hereto is hereby vested in the Auckland University College Council in trust as a site for a University college, subject to the provisions of this Act.

Council to erect college buildings. 3. (1.) The said Council shall erect on the said land buildings suitable for a University college to the satisfaction of the Minister of Education.

(2.) No building shall be erected on the said land except according to plans and in the manner approved by the said Minister.

(3.) Unless within ten years after the passing of this Act the said Council has erected buildings as aforesaid, the Governor-General may, by Proclamation, resume possession of such land, and the land shall as from the date of that Proclamation revert to the Crown.

4. (1.) The said Council is hereby empowered to take, with the consent of the Minister of Education and in accordance with the provisions of the Public Works Act, 1908, any lands adjacent to the land hereby vested in the Council, and for that purpose the said Council shall be deemed to have all the powers and authorities by that Act conferred upon a local authority with respect to the taking of lands for public works.

Council may take adjacent land for purposes of college.

(2.) All lands acquired by the Council under this section shall be held by it in trust for the purposes of a University college.
