1920, No. 9.

AN ACT to amend the Acts Interpretation Act, 1908.

Title.

[20th August, 1920.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Acts Interpretation Amendment Act, 1920, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Acts Interpretation Act, 1908.

2. Section twenty-four of the Acts Interpretation Act, 1908, is hereby amended by omitting from paragraph (c) the words "being a responsible Minister of the Crown" after the words "the Executive Council of New Zealand."

3. This Act shall continue in operation for four months from the first day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty, and no longer; and on the expiration of this Act the words omitted as hereinbefore provided from paragraph (c) of section twenty-four of the Acts Interpretation Act, 1908, shall be deemed to be restored.

Vol. 1920, p. 17, sec. 2.
This sec. shall continue in force until it is specifically repealed. Vide sec. 45 of Act, 1922, No. 51.

Vol. 1920, P. 17: Sec. 2.
This Section is revived as from date of expiry hereof and shall continue in force until 31-12-22 and shall then expire unless further continued: vide Sec. 3 of Act 1921 No. 67.
