Title.

AN ACT to amend the Licensing Act, 1908.

[6th October, 1920.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Licensing Amendment Act, 1920, and shall be read with and form part of the Licensing Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

Section 128 of principal Act amended.

2. Section one hundred and twenty-eight of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a.) By inserting, after the words “accommodation license,” the words “or New-Zealand-wine license” :

(b.) By omitting the words “by reason of non-application for renewal or of the withdrawal or refusal of such application, and in consequence of the lapse,” and substituting in lieu thereof the words “or ceases to exist for any reason, and where consequently.”

Section 30 of Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, amended.

3. (1.) Subsection one of section thirty of the Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, is hereby amended—

(a.) By omitting the words “shall after the passing of this Act,” and substituting in lieu thereof the words “accommodation license, New-Zealand-wine license, or wholesale license shall” :

(b.) By omitting the words “except when a publican’s license,” and substituting in lieu thereof the words “except when a license of the description applied for” :

(c.) By inserting, before the words “No such license,” the words “In the case of a publican’s license, accommodation license, or New-Zealand-wine license.”

(2.) Subsection two of the said section thirty is hereby amended—

(a.) By omitting the words “one new publican’s license,” and substituting in lieu thereof “one new license of the same description as the license which has been forfeited, or has not been renewed, or has otherwise ceased to exist”:

(b.) By inserting, after the word “forfeiture,” the words “non-renewal or cesser.”
