Title.

AN ACT to amend the Housing Act, 1919.

[29th August, 1925.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Housing Amendment Act, 1925, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Housing Act, 1919.

Repeal of provisions imposing restrictions on freehold titles acquired in respect of workers' dwellings.

2. (1.) Section twenty-one of the Housing Act, 1919, and subsection two of section twenty-two of that Act are hereby repealed.

(2.) The District Land Registrar for the land registration district in which is situated any land acquired under the Housing Act, 1919, or the Workers' Dwellings Act, 1910, or any former Workers' Dwellings Act, on presentation to him of any certificate of title issued pursuant to any such Act and having thereon any endorsement or memorial of any restriction or limitation imposed by virtue of the provisions of any such Act, shall, without requiring the payment of any fee, cancel such endorsement or memorial.
